Abstract Garden II

When I saw Trent Altman's piece "An Abstract Garden II" for the first time I was so amazed and moved by this piece that I've decided to find out more about him and his work. "An Abstract garden II" is the United Nations Award Winning piece. Altman creates his own small universe within a world of chaos and uncertainty. With each piece, he discovers, explores, and ultimately shares layers and avenues of moods and emotions.

Life, Love, Explosion

Trent Altman is an international award-winning artist painting with acrylic and mixed media on canvas. And I am glad to be able to use one of his paintings in my cake design. "Altman's paintings are beyond bold and dramatic", and show a strong contrast of story with his unique abstract art. I am attracted to his "Life, Love, Explosion" painting and to create similar effect with the artist, I have use color dust with mix of vodka to paint on wafer paper for the middle tier and finished off with sugar magnolia arrangement.

Pink Blossom Tree

My piece was inspired by the art work of Trent Altman, 'A Pink Blossom Tree'. My initial attraction to the inspiration, was the colours. They were so soothing and peaceful to me; along with the beautiful, delicate blossoms, making their descend, gracefully from the tree. It was an honour and pleasure to have been moved by Trent's interpretation of 'A Pink Blossom Tree'. I am so delighted to have discovered and become a new fan of Mr. Altman's unique and inspiring work.
